Dear [REDACTED]

I wish to express my appreciation for your visit of February 7, despite your very busy schedule. [REDACTED] and I thoroughly enjoyed the discussion and found your views stimulating.

STAT

I regret that you cannot, at this time, formally participate in the planned discussion group on emerging economic and financial issues. Nonetheless, time permitting, I hope we could mutually arrange for informal aperiodic meetings either on the coast or in Washington. We could discuss the immediate concerns of the working group and keep you apprised of developments. I look forward to seeing you again.

Sincerely yours,

STAT
